

RESOLUTION FY2022-12

Unison Crisis Stabilization Unit Grant Agreement

November 22, 2021

WHEREAS, pursuant to R.C. 340.03 the Board serves as the community addiction and mental health planning agency for the county, and in so doing evaluates the need for facility services and sets priorities for addiction services, mental health services, and recovery supports; and

WHEREAS, the Board has identified as a priority project a crisis stabilization unit (“CSU”) in Wood County, an alternative to hospitalization of mental health patients, providing short-term, intensive behavioral health services and support to individuals experiencing a mental health crisis; and

WHEREAS, Unison is applying for Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services (OhioMHAS) Capital Assistance Funds for the purchase, construction, professional design services, furnishings/equipment of a crisis new site purchase/renovation project in Wood County (“Project”); and

WHEREAS, the Board has passed Resolution FY2022-06 on September 13, 2021 supporting Unison’s project to expand and improve the community mental health and addiction system infrastructure in Wood County; and

WHEREAS, the OhioMHAS Capital Assistance Funding requires local matching funds; and

WHEREAS, Unison has applied for and the Board has approved as expressed in Resolution FY2022-07, as amended by Resolution FY2022-11, to grant Unison available moneys to supplement the necessary local matching funds (“Grant Funds”) to financially support Unison’s CSU program in conjunction with the OhioMHAS Capital Assistance Funds and Unison’s matching funds; and

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the WCADAMHS approves the Unison Crisis Stabilization Unit Grant Agreement in the amount of $575,000.
